PROLOGUE

AND WHAT DO WE REMEMBER?

We look back and remember the happy times, feeling the rewards of hard work and dedication. Sometimes we felt all alone, isolated in the midst of a crowd. Our existence was one of constant beginnings and continuous endings that filled our lives and our memories. It was our year, molded by the vast and diverse characters of who we were and had become.

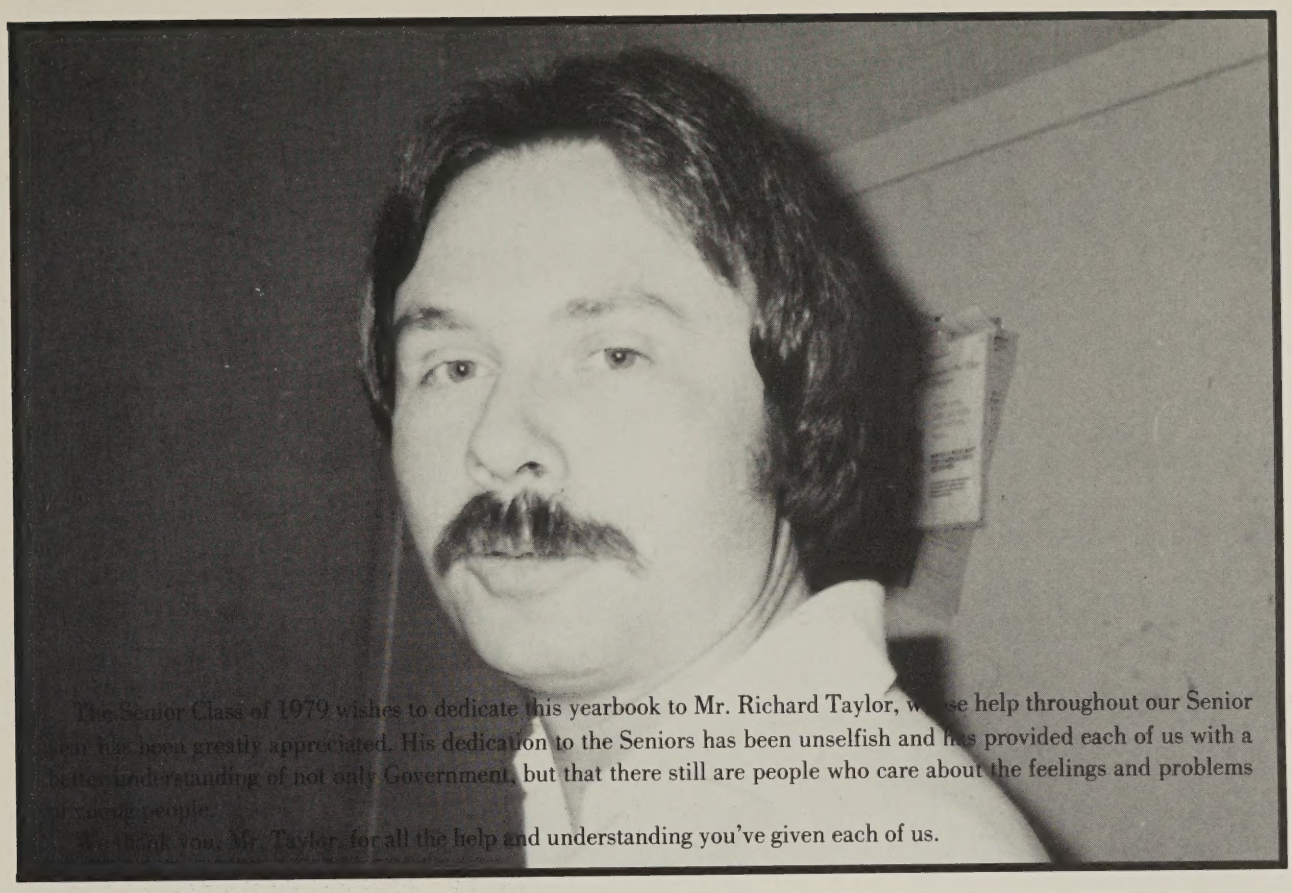
Our Principal Speaks

Congratulations to the graduation class of 1979. You have reached another plateau in your journey through life. Graduation from high school is a high point in your life. You have completed a highly successful and enjoyable high school career. However, it only marks the end of one chapter in the book of life. The next chapter has not been written. What does the future hold? You will experience much in your lifetime. There will be times filled with success and happiness, as well as, failure and tragedy. Your journey will not always be smooth and straight. There will be obstacles to overcome and detours to slow your journey. However, I know that you will have a successful and fulfilling life if you believe in yourself and in your ability to make things happen.

I sincerely hope that you will make the most of every opportunity you have. You should develop your potential leadership qualities and use them to make successful and meaningful careers. It is my belief that you are looking forward with great anticipation to the next plateau of your life and I am sure that you will make many contributions to your community and country.

William T. Winders



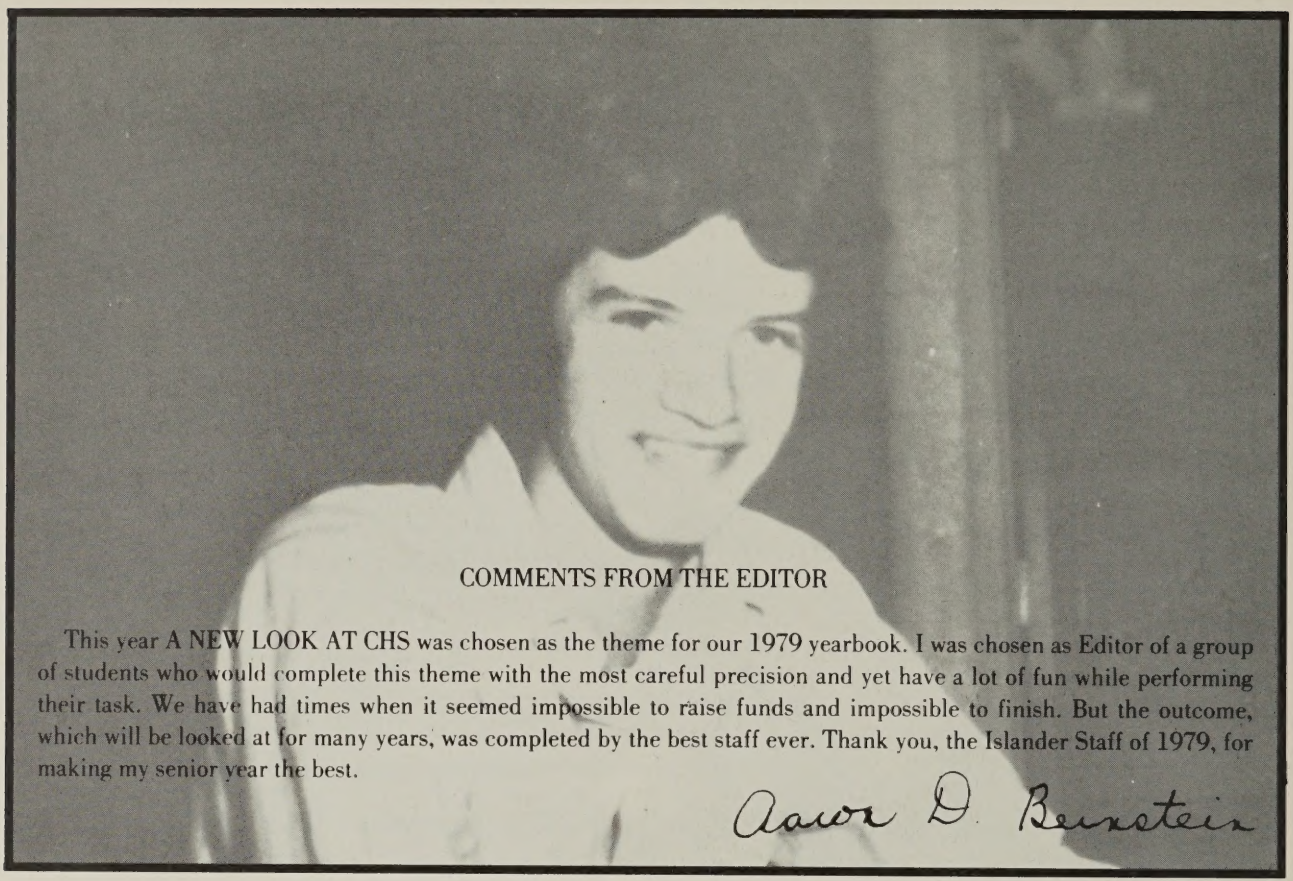
The Senior Class of 1979 wishes to dedicate this yearbook to Mr. Richard Taylor, whose help throughout our Senior year has been greatly appreciated. His dedication to the Seniors has been unselfish and has provided each of us with a better understanding of not only Government, but that there still are people who care about the feelings and problems of young people.

We thank you Mr. Taylor, for all the help and understanding you've given each of us.

We, the Senior Class of 1979, wish to express our thanks to our parents for helping us accomplish the past twelve years of our formal education.

Thanks for cheering us on during our athletic games, for supplying us with that needed answer for homework, for encouraging us to keep going when we wanted to quit and for the extra money for our big weekends. But most of all, thanks for the love.

Comments From the Editor



COMMENTS FROM THE EDITOR

This year A NEW LOOK AT CHS was chosen as the theme for our 1979 yearbook. I was chosen as Editor of a group of students who would complete this theme with the most careful precision and yet have a lot of fun while performing their task. We have had times when it seemed impossible to raise funds and impossible to finish. But the outcome, which will be looked at for many years, was completed by the best staff ever. Thank you, the Islander Staff of 1979, for making my senior year the best.

LAST WILL AND TESTAMENT

I, Robin Allen, being of exhausted mind and body, do hereby bequeath the following: (1) to Mr. Taylor, his very own pyramid; (2) to Mr. Winder, my promise to return so I can get on his nerves, and (3) to my sister, Bobbie, I leave Mr. Bill and a year's membership to the crime stopper's club.

I, Aaron Bernstein, being of tall mind and long-legged body, do hereby bequeath: (1) to my brother Bryan, my ability to get along with Mr. Winder and Coach Mears well enough to get away with the things I did, (2) to my brother Kerry, my ability to bug all teachers, especially Mr. Taylor.

I, Bobbie Jean Bowden, being of sound mind and body, do hereby leave the following: to my sister Kim, the best of luck in her school years, to Robbie Conklin, the book "Why do you love me?" and to the class of '80, my best wishes for the greatest senior year possible!

I, Kerry Bowden, being of freaked out mind and hung over body, do hereby leave the following: To my sister Sue and brother Tommy, my studying ability. To Mr. Enright, my silk gym shorts and combat boots, provided that he enters the next Missless Pagent. To Mr. Taylor, these words of wisdom: "No!, Don't tell me . . . Sit down and shut up!" also a drunk driving ticket. Finally, to all my fellow classmates I leave, all the undented portions of my car. nano nano!

I, Brenda Bunting, being of short mind and body, do hereby bequeath to the following: To Mr. Jeffries, my nose providing it doesn't grow on him; to Bryan Bernstein, my government notebook providing he doesn't doodle as much as I did; and to my sister, Teresa, all my good times providing she has as many as I did.

I, Denise Bunting, being of sound mind and tall body, do hereby will to my brother Chris, my ability to keep the basketball court clean during practice and games, provided he hits every spot and brings home the bruises as proof.

I, Audrey Byrd, being of unpredictable mind and typical body, do hereby leave to Toni Clark, Renee Hursh, and Mary McIntosh my ability to play basketball (for what it's worth). To the class of '80 my best wishes and good luck. And last but not least, to Bobby Tull, all my love, because he'll have it forever.

I, Janice Carey, being of lazy mind and sound body, do hereby leave 1) to Tammy Williams and Jeff Carey, my ability to always be on time because they need it; 2) to Kim Williams, my best wishes and good luck at CHS.

I, Robin Carpenter, being of confused mind and body, do hereby leave my ability to get out of work to Ray Bass; to the junior class a happy and successful senior year; and to Jerry Wimbrow, all my love.

I, Nathan Clark, being of obese body and slightly warped mind, do hereby leave to Wyle Maddox my ability to not flip Jeeps, providing you don't flip any more than I did.

I, Sylvia Clark, being of confused mind and unproportioned body, do hereby leave the following: to Jimbo, my ability to get through school (he needs it); to Michelle, my ability to play sports, providing that she does better than I have; to Leeanne and my former classmates, the class of '80, best wishes and lots of luck.

I, Kathy D. Dickerson, being of loving mind and okay body, leave my ability in sports to my cousins, Stephane, and Elwood and my sister Kim. To the upcoming students at CHS, I leave my ability to cut-up in class without getting caught, and last, to my old class of '80, my ability to graduate.

I, George Fecteau being of strong mind and strong body do hereby leave all my football abilities to my brother; and to Linda, I leave enough money to buy her a Z28.

I, Sherry Francis, do hereby leave to my sister, Robin, the ability to make it through school, and to all the upcoming Seniors good luck at CHS.

I, Pamela Gray, being of sound mind and thin body, do hereby bequeath my good Gov't grades to any deserving Junior, my ability to get through 6 years of high school without any trouble to my "little sister," Beth Everette, and my deepest gratitude and thanks to all my past teachers. Thank You!

I, Jackie Handy, being of sound mind and wide body, do hereby leave to my sister Doris, all my abilities in my schoolwork, hoping she'll do as good as I did, to Claudette H., all my sneaky ways of playing in class without getting caught, and to Fannie Mae K., my ability of writing, hoping she'll be writing better by "1980".

I, Herbert Haugh, being of unsound mind and exhausted body do hereby leave to my brother Michael, my ability to play football provided he plays better than I; to Karl, my big brother, the ability to get into trouble for he's already mastered the skill; and to Mr. Enright, our third period study hall.

I, Belinda Banks Howard, hereby leave my will and determination to graduate to my fellow schoolmates, Kim Jester and Mary Kaminski. And I wish the very best to the upcoming Seniors as well.

I, Susan Howard, being of confused mind and fragile body do hereby leave the following: (1) to next year's cheerleading squad, my ability to always do the right thing (but at the wrong time), (2) to Mr. Montresor and Mr. Taylor, a new stock of late slips, and (3) to my brother, Shaney, lots of luck and good times when he attends C.H.S.

I, Cloyd Jester, being of sound mind and hairy body, do hereby will my fôotball abilities to Bobby Allen Tull, provided he can break bones better than I; also to Jeannette Birch, I leave all my government notes, provided she can pass Mr. Taylor with them.

I, Gloria Lankford, being of sound mind and great body do hereby leave my ability to study hard and pass a test without cheating to Donna and Kim Lankford, and my ability to play sports to Roger and Kevin Lankford, and hope that they will do as well as I have.

I, Bernard Lankford, being of sound mind and well-built body, I leave my athletic ability to my brother, Roger, and sister, Donna, provided they are as good as I am or better.

I, David Lewis, leave to my nephew, Bryan Lewis, my abilities to do all that I have done and gotten away with (most of it!). Love-n-Kisses.

I, Shelly "Weedcutter" Mason, being of unstable mind and partied-out body, do hereby leave the following: My ability of eloquent speech to Barlow, providing he can refine it better than I, and my ability to kill ducks to Danny Berry, providing he doesn't kill any down on Beebe Road.

I, Mark Matthews, being of unsound mind and body, give nothing to nobody because I'm taking it with me. This is Mark from Ork signing off . . . "Nano, Nano."

I, Curtis Merritt, being of _____ mind and _____ body, do hereby leave: (1) to my brother Bobby my collection of unwritten hall passes and all my braile cheat sheets and luck through the rest of his years at CHS; (2) to Kerry Bernstein my abilities in Master Mind and one pair of mirror sunglasses; (3) and last but not least I leave Coach Mears the skill and ability to tell the big ones from the little ones.

I, Vernon Merritt, being of crazy mind and of one body, do hereby leave my ability to play football to Kevin Merritt, because Denny Mears wouldn't know what to do with it, and to Wyle Maddox, I leave a large pizza from the Pizza Hut.

I, Amos Miller, being of wonderful mind and "Mr. America" body, leave my smartness and ability to graduate to Dempsey, Andrew, Horace; and my athletic ability to James (Bubby) Townsend.

I, Steve Reed, being of half sound mind and uncooperative body, do hereby leave my football skills to Danny Berry, provided he doesn't cone anyone, and my ability to play baseball to Kerry Rieker, provided he can play better than I did.

I, John Tarr, being of overloaded mind and body, do hereby will my athletic ability to my brother, Jerry Tarr. To Wyle Maddox I leave my ability to do all my homework and not cheat on tests. Last but not least, I leave to Danny Berry, my ability to get into Mr. Enwright's hairs or what's left of them. P.S. Good Luck Football Team.

I, Tim Tarr, being of lazy mind and body, do hereby leave my football ability to Bobby Tull, provided that he can use it better than I did.

I, Donnie Thornton, being of little mind and body, leave nothing to nobody because I am taking it all with me.

I, Eddie Thornton, being of unstable mind and almost dead body, do hereby leave to Maury Enright all the munchies in third period study hall, to Leeanne Jeffries, the ability to go to her locker between classes provided she doesn't get caught like I did, and to Bobbie Jo Allen, I leave myself.

I, Linda Thornton, being of sound mind and great body, do hereby leave to my nephew, Kenny, the ability to get out of school quicker than I have, and to George I leave all my love.

I, Penny Sue White, being of cuddly body and witty mind, leave my ability to make clever remarks to Tammy Williams, providing she does as well as I did; to all my teachers, I leave my thanks. Also, to all students at C.H.S. good luck in the future. My memories of C.H.S. I will never forget, so I am taking these with me.

SENIOR PROPHECY

Well, here it is 1989, 10 years have gone past,
and they sure went a'flying.
Here comes my classmates one-by-one. I'll introduce them and the past things they've done.
Also the present, and not to forget, the good things they've done since last we all met.

Denise Bunting, our class instructor,
now has her own orchestra and she's the conductor.

David Lewis, who married Kaye, has 2 kids already, with one on the way.

Jackie Handy, who was so smart,
went to New York to get her start.

Belinda Howard, so short and cute,
is still married to Buddy, with 3 kids to boot.

Braddock Harmon, now he's no bum,
he earns a living playing a drum.

George and Linda, voted most romantic,
have the largest family this side of the Atlantic.

Aaron Bernstein, so tall and limp,
now works inflating the Goodyear Blimp.

Sylvia Clark, our Miss CHS, is now a model and one of the best.

John Tarr, our bridge building companion,
is now building a bridge across the Grand Canyon.

Sharon Floyd, always a striver, went to the Grand Prix as the first woman driver.

Bobbie Jean Bowden, our dancing miss, opened a disco, it's called "A New Twist".

Brenda Bunting, who still isn't married, went to Goldey Beacom and became a secretary.

Kathy and Arthur, who were teenage hits,
it's 10 years later — and now they're "The Pitts".

Bernard Lankford, he went pretty far,
he joined "Chicago" — he plays the guitar.

Robin Carpenter, who couldn't figure out an occupation, said she'd try, while she took a vacation.

Charles Smith, who could draw so funny,
ended up in the State Pen for drawing money.

Audrey Byrd, our class lawyer, we'd like to report, became a judge in the United States Supreme Court.

Timmy Tarr, who likes to act goofy,
his favorite phrase is still, "Offy-Doofy".

Mark Matthews, who didn't like school,
went in the Coast Guard — he thinks its cool.

Donnie Thornton, who has danced so long,
went on The Gong Show — he got Gonged.

Janice Carey, who married Duane,
has 4 kids and has moved to Maine.

Robin Allen, we all know her, Took fashion merchandising . . . Sax's Fifth Avenue is now her employer.

Amos Miller, who has a deep voice,
has invented a dog food to compete with Top Choice.

Beverly Boezkowski, who joined the Marines,
now is a captain and pilots submarines.

Henrick Townsend, so slim and tall,
now owns a sporting goods store in the Salisbury Mall.

Tammy Thomas, you just have to hear,
she's been proclaimed "Woman of the Year".

Penny White, we're so proud we could burst, went to Nassawadox and became a nurse.

Susan Howard, who became a teacher,
well, 5 years ago, she married a preacher.

Lillie Fosque, who had us in a whirl,
now is a stewardess and flies around the world.

Vernon Merritt, you just can't compare'em moved to Arabia — he's started a harem.

Sherry Francis, so quiet and shy,
she got married and to just the right guy.

Dean Fisher, a real nice guy,
now is a pilot and flys in the sky.

Sam Clark, our Missless Emcee,
now hosts Miss America pageants on T.V.

Cloyd Jester, who drives a Torino, joined the Sweathogs — he replaced Barbarino.

Gloria Lankford, as quiet as a mouse,
after she left college, she set up house.

Nathan Clark, with the cute little dimples,
now makes a medicine for acne pimples.

Shelly Mason, he did not fall, surprised us all and bought George Hall's.

Curtis Merritt, now what can we say, married Penny and is happy all day.

Charles Kilmon, who slept behind each teacher's back,
now teaches class for the insomniac.

Kerry Bowden, who never was meek, went to Arabia and became "Shiek Freak".

Steve Reed, the happiest in class, joined the Army and is now among top brass.

Herbie Haugh, now what can we say,
he's moved to New York to dance the ballet.

Eddie Thornton, our ship welding fanatic,
did you know he's building a second "Titanic?"

That's all of my friends, and that leaves me —
the one who wrote this prophecy.
They've all done well, as well as could be — now it's for me to tell what became of me.
Some said I should marry, some said I shouldn't,
but I did the former — and quit marriage I wouldn't.

C'mon get the Spirit

C'mon in and check out the full line of Spirit outboard motors. Eight easy-starting, great-running, fuel-saving models from 2 to 65 horsepower. For fishing, water skiing, or just plain horsing around.

We'll tell you why we've got the Spirit. And we've got a feeling that once you take a closer look, you'll be getting the Spirit too.
